Welcome to Ellsworth Community College
A division of Iowa Valley Community College District

Student Services Division

The following information has been compiled to assist students in receiving reasonable academic accommodations and support services appropriate for their disability. Students wishing to receive academic accommodations must fill out appropriate paperwork, provide documentation of their disability (if available) and meet with a member of the Learning Services Staff.

Students should follow all time deadlines and procedures necessary to receive specific academic accommodations every semester if they want continued accommodations. Failure to follow procedures on the part of the student may result in delays in or denial of the provision of accommodations.

The information and procedures are not all inclusive and are subject to change. Students unsure of the appropriate procedure to follow and/or with a situation not covered by the procedures listed, should contact a Student Services staff person as soon as possible for clarification and guidance as to the appropriate procedure for their situation.

Ellsworth Community College (ECC), which is a part of the Iowa Valley Community College District, reserves the right to determine the appropriateness of disability documentation and requests for services on a case-by-case basis.

Should you encounter any difficulty or other concerns regarding your academic accommodations, contact Learning Services staff (located in The Hub) immediately.

Disability Verification Process

This process involves a combination of things. First the Student must complete and submit an application for accommodations based on a disability. This document MUST be completed by the student personally, not a parent or significant other. Documentation of the effects of the disability on learning (such as IEP/SAR) should be submitted at the same time. After the application is submitted, the student will meet with the Student Services Staff to discuss their application. At this time if documentation is not available, Student Services staff will also discuss with the student what they perceive the disability to be and how they feel it affects their learning. An informal assessment may also be done at this time. Appropriate accommodations will then be determined by the Student Services staff based on each individual students’ needs. The student will be notified via mail/email of the approved accommodations and how to access them while here at ECC.

A specific accommodation plan cannot be completed nor implemented until the student has submitted this information and met with a staff member of the Student Services Division at ECC.
Statement of Intention to Foster Student Independence

Student Services seeks to foster independence in the students it serves by:

- Providing individual services to students only after they identify themselves to our office as a person who seeks assistance.
- Empowering students with information about their rights and responsibilities.
- Encouraging students to directly interact with faculty and staff regarding their disabilities and accommodation needs.
- Limiting our interaction with faculty and staff to an informational and educational capacity, rather than an advocacy role.
- Encouraging faculty to directly interact with students regarding modifications in testing and classroom procedures.

One last thing:

As part of this application, you will find a contract with respect to your receipt of this handbook and your understanding of the rights and responsibilities of all parties involved. Please take a few moments to review the handbook, sign the contract, and return it with your completed application. This contract will be kept on file for future reference.

The last page of the four page application is a release of information. The information that you provide about yourself and your disability is confidential. In accordance with the Federal Education Rights Privacy Act (FERPA) Legislation, this information cannot be shared with others without your written permission. You need to list any specific individuals, (parents, doctors, teachers, counselors, etc.) by name that this information can be shared with to help ensure your educational success. You must also sign and date this form. If you prefer that this information not be shared please write “N/A” where it asks for names and sign where indicated.

Thank you and good luck with your studies,

| Lecture Notes           | ▪ Share accommodation letter with instructor at beginning of course.                      | ▪ If student is unable to find a volunteer, assist student in recruiting a reliable note-taker. Advise the class that a note-taker is needed, but do not identify the student needing assistance.
                                  ▪ If needed, ask instructor for assistance identifying a note-taker.                    | ▪ Make copies of notes in The Hub, if needed, and hold for student.
                                  ▪ Work out details of note copying and exchange with note taker.                      | ▪ Complete hiring paperwork for note-taker.
                                  ▪ Attempt to resolve any problems with note-taker.                                      | ▪ Complete monthly payroll. Note-takers are paid for ½ hr each time they bring in notes to be copied.
                                  ▪ If a note-taker is not available, ask the instructor for copies of lecture notes or permission to tape-record lectures. | ▪ Terminate unsuitable note-takers.
                                  ▪ IMPORTANT: Note-taker services are to supplement student learning. Having a note-taker does not relieve the student with a disability from the responsibility of attending class, actively participating, and taking notes to the best of their ability
                                  ▪ If the instructor wishes, he/she may provide lecture notes or slides in lieu of student note taker. | ▪ Assist in resolving problems. |
| Extra Time for Written Assignments | ▪ Share accommodation letter with each instructor early in semester.                      | ▪ With the student, agree upon a suitable timeframe for written assignments. Perhaps you will allow the student to turn in in-class writing at the next class period, instead of at the end of class. |                                                                                                                                                     |
