

What is Federal Work Study?

- Federal Work Study is a need-based program that offers you a chance to work part-time, in an area of your interest, to earn money to help pay educational and/or personal expenses.
- Federal Work Study program funds pay 100% of your wages.
- Funds for Federal Work Study are limited, and not all students who are eligible can be placed on the program.
- You will be paid the current minimum wage two times per month.
- Students should begin their job search and arrange interviews as early as possible during the first two weeks of the semester.

Federal Work Study Qualifying Guidelines

- Your eligibility is determined by the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You are awarded an allotment of money which may be earned through part-time employment in work-study approved positions on campus.
- You must be enrolled at least half-time (6 credits per semester) to be eligible for this program.

Checklist in Applying for a Federal Work-Study Position

- Complete the FAFSA online
- If interested in a work-study position after reading qualifying guidelines, complete the online work-study application, located at [insert web link here].
- Contact and meet with the supervisor(s) of the campus position(s) in which you are interested.
- Once offered and accepted a position, please contact Lynn Duit to schedule an appointment. She can be reached via email at Lynn.Duit@iavalley.edu or by phone at 641-648-8513. Her office is located in the Hub (lower level of Kruse-Main).