Activity during the week of April 17th

IOWA SENATE CONFIRMS A FOURTH GOVERNOR APPOINTEE

On April 19th, the Iowa Senate confirmed Nathan Peterson to serve as the 4th member on the Iowa State Education Board.

SESSION TIMETABLE

April 19th was considered the 100th day or the last day of the 2022 legislative session for Iowa legislators to receive their per diem reimbursement privileges. The Iowa House did not debate any bills this week and the Iowa Senate debated 6 bills on Tuesday. Both chambers did not meet on Wednesday and Thursday this week and are tentatively scheduled to come back into session on Monday, April 25th.

STANDING BILL PROCESS

The standing bill is considered the last bill filed and passed during a legislative session. The standing bill addresses adjustments to appropriations bills and makes Iowa Code changes to bills filed or signed into law from previous sessions. It is also not uncommon to find language in a standing bill that makes grammatical, numbering, and other corrections to bills that the Iowa House and Iowa Senate already passed and sent to the Governor's Office for final action. As of today, the standing bill has not been filed.
